- The system should maintain a log of all package deliveries and retrievals with timestamps and who got the packages for the last 30 days.
- The system should detect unauthorized access attempts and notify the homeowner within 30 seconds of a suspected theft attempt.
- The system should only let authorized delivery people deposit packages into the lockbox using a unique access method.
- The system should provide a lock box that stores delivered packages to prevent unauthorized access.